TRANSPORTATION

FROM KLIA & KLIA 2

The KLIA Express train offers a top-notch, quick airport transfer service to KLIA and KLIA 2 every day from 5AM to 12PM. The KLIA Express will reach KLIA and KLIA 2 in about 35 to 40 minutes, respectively, from the city centre. The price of a one-way ticket is merely RM55. Also, you can save 25% off standard prices when you reserve the Group Saving Package.

In addition, there is an Airport Coach bus that runs from 12.30AM to 11.30PM and costs about RM10. The Aero bus travels every five to 20 minutes from early in the morning until late at night, all throughout the year. You can take a bus to KLIA or KLIA 2 from KL Sentral and then return to the city centre and the ticket costs RM14. It provides a 5-star affordable service in addition to a 10% discount.

Taxis are also quite expensive while travelling from the city centre to the airport. If you're with your family, the cost goes from RM80 to roughly RM200. However, it will only take 40 to 45 minutes to travel from Klang Valley to KLIA and KLIA 2, and Grab will cost from RM65 as it is a fixed rate. Given that it is more commodious and pleasant, we strongly advise you to take Grab.

FROM PENANG INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

It takes around an hour to fly from Penang Airport to KLIA, and the fare ranges from RM70 to RM650. Aside from that, the cheapest method of travel to KL from Penang is by bus, with prices starting at RM50 to RM60. However, the duration of each trip from Penang to KL by bus will be between seven to eight hours. However, driving from Penang to Kuala Lumpur will take around six hours, depending on traffic.

FROM SUBANG SKYPARK TERMINAL

From KL Sentral to Subang Airport, passengers are transported by SKYPARK Link trains. In Kuala Lumpur, it is an express train service. SkyPark Link now provides 32 daily services at intervals of 30 to 60 minutes. The fare from Subang Airport to Kuala Lumpur City is about RM3.50 each way.

FROM LANGKAWI INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

There are flights that may get you from Langkawi International Airport to KLIA in around an hour and ten minutes. The base prices for the flight range from RM160 to RM200. Aside from that, flights from Langkawi to Subang Airport won't take very long to get to the destination - around 58 minutes. The cost of the bus from Langkawi to KL, which includes the cost of the ferry to the island, ranges from RM118 to RM176 per person.

FROM KOTA KINABALU INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

There is no other way to get from Sabah to KL than by plane. Kota Kinabalu International Airport (KKIA) to KLIA will take approximately 2 hours and 25 minutes, and tickets cost between RM380 and RM1380.

FROM KUCHING INTERNATIONAL AIRPORT

Flights from Kuching International Airport to KLIA will take about 2 hours and 45 minutes. Kuching International Airport is located 11 kilometres south of the city's centre. Flights to KL are run by Malaysia Airlines, Air Asia, and Malindo Air. Also, the flight from Kuching to Subang Airport takes 2 hours and 23 minutes and costs between RM289 to RM581.

ALTERNATE WAY TO KL CITY CENTER

Train

The KLIA Express train, which travels in around 28 minutes, is one of the quickest methods to go from the airport to the city centre. The cost of each ticket, however, is only RM55. The train connects KLIA and KLIA 2 International Airports with KL Sentral.

You can buy rail tickets online or by going to KL Sentral, the train's major station. The service offers high speed WiFi on board as well as a free porter service at the appropriate platforms.

In addition, there are various rail services that will take you to Kuala Lumpur's city centre. The MRT, LRT, KL Monorail, and KTM are the available train services.

Bus

Without a doubt, buses are the most affordable way to travel between either airport and the city. They consist of a fleet of 44 seated, air-conditioned coaches and are generally safe and comfortable. Depending on your pick-up station, each bus trip costs a little as RM15 per passenger. There may be a difference in how long it takes to go from the airport to the specific bus station. Nonetheless, the average journey duration is 1 hour and 15 minutes.

In addition, RapidKL buses offer feeder bus service to MRT, LRT, and Monorail stations as well as transportation inside the Klang Valley to KL City. In addition to providing free buses, there are unique services provided by companies like Go KL, Smart Selangor, PJ City and others.

Taxi

Although taxis are less popular now since they are usually more expensive than E-hailing services, they are still available. Due to their exorbitant prices and lack of standardisation, taxis are generally avoided by locals. If there is no other option, passengers should ask the taxi driver in advance if they can use the given metre to get to a specified location to avoid paying an expensive cost. The average fee is RM3 for the first kilometre, and an additional RM0.20 is charged for every further 150 metres.

E- Hailing Service

E-hailing services are currently one of the most popular forms of transportation in Malaysia. The e-hailing service is extensively utilised by both locals and travellers due to its high reliability and accessibility through a user-friendly mobile app, making it one of the quickest ways to go to a specific location if there isn't much traffic. One of the best reasons to use the e-hailing service is the predetermined pricing that is available even before you make a reservation, and they are often already covered by accident insurance. Today, a number of applications, including GrabCar, AirAsia Ride, MyCar, InDriver, Kumpool, and others, provide e-hailing services.

CAR RENTALS

CAR RENTALS

Car Rental Association Malaysia (CRAM), also known as Persatuan Sewaan Kereta Malaysia, has the goal of promoting, projecting, and protecting the interests of its members by serving as a conduit between the relevant regulatory authorities (private and public) in all matters pertaining to the car rental industry and its associated and related businesses. In essence, they are one of Malaysia's reputable automobile rental groups. As a result, we have compiled a list of automobile rental companies for you.

INTRODUCTION TO KUALA LUMPUR

Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia, is renowned for its magnificent skyscrapers and other exquisite examples of modern architecture. We all know that Malaysia has a diverse population, therefore KL city offers a variety of cultural attractions for you to explore. Kuala Lumpur spans a territory of around 243 square kilometres. It is also regarded as one of the urban areas in Southeast Asia that is seeing both a significant increase in population and economic growth.

At the moment, it is the ninth most visited city worldwide. Around 2.0 million people, or 25% of Malaysia's total population, called Kuala Lumpur home as of 2021. From 2010 to 2020, Kuala Lumpur's annual population change climbed gradually by 2.2%. The city is situated at the junction of the Gombak and Klang Rivers and is not far from Peninsular Malaysia's western coast. It is located 300 kilometres northwest of Singapore and roughly 40 kilometres east of the Strait of Malacca.

In addition, it is situated in the state of Selangor's administrative centre. Did you know that Kuala Lumpur's name in Malay means "muddy estuary"? This is so because the Klang and Gombak rivers converge in KL City. The Federal Territory of Kuala Lumpur, one of Malaysia's three Federal Territories along with Putrajaya and Labuan, is situated along the state of Selangor's central west coast. KL has hosted many major sports, political and cultural events throughout the years, most notably the 1998 Commonwealth Games and the 2017 Sea Games.

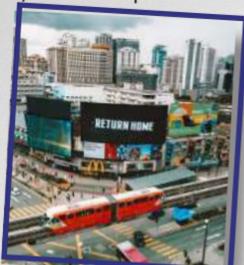

Last but not least, according to Moody's Analytics, Malaysia's economy would likely develop moderately in 2023, with the Gross Domestic Product (GDP) projected to increase by 4.1% following an exceptional 8.7% rise in 2022. With the decreased year-over-year increase of 7.0% in the fourth quarter of 2022 compared to 14.2% in the third quarter, it was predicted that economic growth would decline even further in the following quarters. The GDP of Malaysia grew by 8.7% in 2022, the greatest rate in more than 20 years.

10 FUN FACTS

1. Meaning of Kuala Lumpur

Meaning of Kuala Lumpur

The name Kuala Lumpur is derived from the Malay word lumpur, which means "mud" and refers to the confluence of two rivers. It is where the Gombak and Klang rivers meet. Kuala Lumpur had not yet been built when 87 Chinese tin miners hurried up the Klang River and founded a colony at the muddy confluence of the river in 1857. Soon after, Kuala Lumpur was given its name.

3. World's Tallest Twin Towers is in KL

The Petronas Twin Towers are the world's tallest twin towers until 2022. However, it is one of the tallest buildings in Malaysia until Merdeka 118 that had recently surpassed it.

5. The Malaysian King lives in KL@Istana Budaya

The Yang di-Pertuan Agong's official house is Istana Negara, usually referred to as the National Palace, and it is located on Jalan Duta in Kuala Lumpur.

2. Parliamentary Democracy System

Malaysia is a parliamentary democracy-based constitutional monarchy. His Majesty the King is the sovereign of the nation. The parliament is the most important institution in a country that preserves democratic values.

4. Malaysian Government is in Putrajaya

Instead of being in the capital city, Putrajaya is where the Malaysian government is located. Putrajaya is the administrative and judicial capital of the nation and is home to numerous government offices.

6. Yang di-Pertuan Agong is an Elected Monarch

Notwithstanding the fact that Malaysia does not have an absolute monarchy, the Yang di-Pertuan Agong is chosen by the Conference of Rulers for a five-year term under a unique rotational system. The Agong is chosen by the Conference of Rulers from among the Malay emperors. The Third Schedule of the Constitution and the Conference of Rulers both provide detailed descriptions of the election's process and procedures.

7. Home To The Second Tallest Tower in the World

The Merdeka 118 Tower is the second-tallest structure in the world, did you know that? With a height of 678.9 metres and 118 stories, it is the newest highest structure in Malaysia. The building is known as Merdeka 118 since it has 118 levels. The structure is slated to debut in 2023. The outstretched hand gesture made by Tunku Abdul Rahman on Malaysia's Independence Day while chanting "Merdeka!" served as both a model and inspiration for the building's design.

8. KL Was the First Country in Asia to Host the Commonwealth

The 1998 Asian Games were held for the first time in Kuala Lumpur. The 2010 Games took place in Delhi and were staged in Asia once more.

9. Hosted the SEA Games in 2017

Kuala Lumpur received praise for hosting the 2017 Sea Games. It not only improved the country's standing but also surpassed previous records in terms of medal haul.

10. KL is The Retail and Fashion Hub of Malaysia

Around 350 retail malls can be found throughout Malaysia as a whole, and Kuala Lumpur is the centre of this bustling shopping paradise. The retail centres in Kuala Lumpur are home to numerous brands that sell clothing, accessories, sports equipment, and household items.

HISTORY OF KUALA LUMPUR

The name Kuala Lumpur, which in Malay means “muddy confluence”, was coined when tin miners went to the Klang river in Ampang to prospect the area for some mine and they took use of the dual valleys of the rivers Gombak and Klang. Therefore, Kuala Lumpur’s name was created. Here is a look at Kuala Lumpur’s history in chronological order.

1857

87 tin miners searched the Kuala Lumpur region for rich tin supplies before discovering enormous reserves in Ampang.

1862

When Kuala Lumpur grew quickly, more miners from various locations arrived and settled there. There were numerous disputes and gang battles among the society as a result of the population growth.

1869

Yap Ah Loy, the head of the Chinese neighbourhood in Kuala Lumpur, made the decision to impose law and order there. He was also the first to found Kuala Lumpur’s first school as well as a homeless shelter.

1880

Frank Sweetenham, a British envoy, had created a city plan to modernise Kuala Lumpur.

1887

The city of Kuala Lumpur was chosen to serve as Selangor’s capital.

1896

With the union of the four state’s sultans, Kuala Lumpur was chosen as the Federated Malay State’s capital.

1910

The first train station in Kuala Lumpur was restored and created by Arthur Benison Hubback, the most productive and gifted British colonial architect.

During World War II, the Japanese occupied the city.

The capital of the Malayan Federation was then Kuala Lumpur

1946

Malaysia celebrated its Independence Day on August 31 and the British decided to leave the country after 151 years of administration.

1957

KL's population increased to roughly 500,000, and this brought with it its own unique set of administrative problems.

1960

Then, Kuala Lumpur was chosen as Malaysia's capital.

1963

A full-fledged civil war broke out as a result of a fight between the Chinese and the Malay.

1969

Being given city status made Kuala Lumpur the first town in Malaysia to accomplish so following independence.

1972

With its own government, Kuala Lumpur was a Federal Territory that belonged to it alone.

1974

Thanks to Dr. Mahathir, who served as prime minister at the time, Kuala Lumpur and the rest of the nation were modernised under his "Vision 2020" programme.

1981

Thereafter Malaysia's federal administrative capital was relocated to Putrajaya.

1999

5 TIPS EVERY TRAVELER SHOULD KNOW BEFORE VISITING KUALA LUMPUR

Here are five tips that each visitor to Kuala Lumpur should keep in mind:

1. Be wary of scammers

Travellers in KL are encouraged to exercise caution and avoid becoming victims of scams. Be particularly watchful of phoney calls and texts that pretend to be from government agencies and come from unidentified or questionable numbers. Nowadays, con artists frequently pose as the identities of legitimate companies in an effort to dupe people into giving them vital information. It is necessary to report any scamming groups by dialling 997 if you come across any.

2. Make sure the taximeters are turned on by the drivers

By the time you begin your trip, taxi drivers must have turned on their taximeters. If they won't do it, you can exit the taxi and get another one. This is so that it is against the law to charge a passenger without using the metre.

3. Avoid going down any dark alleys

Although KL is renowned for its exciting nightlife, there are some places where it may be pretty shady. It is strongly advised to walk with other people and avoid walking alone, especially in dimly lit areas. You do not want to become a robbery victim!

4. Bring clothing that is appropriate for hot temperatures

Average annual temperatures in Malaysia's tropical region are oppressive at 30°C. Only a pair of flip-flops and a pair of shoes should be packed, along with some light, loose-fitting cotton clothing. Pack a hoodie or lightweight jacket in addition, as Malaysia has a tendency to keep the air conditioning on in chilly places like buses, trains, and shopping malls. Also, because the weather in this area is liable to change, you should always be prepared to always carry an umbrella.

5. Malaysia is a dazzling diverse nation

In addition to ethnic Malay Muslims, ethnic Chinese, Tamil Indians, and twelve indigenous communities known as "orang asli" live in Kuala Lumpur, which is multiethnic but primarily Islamic. This implies that mosques, churches, and Hindu temples coexist with Chinese temples decorated with red lanterns. The three main languages of KL are Bahasa Malaysia, Mandarin, and Tamil. To get around, you might need to acquire a little bit of Bahasa Malaysia!

ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub offers Revolutionary Approaches for Heart Health

SIGHTSEEING

Coronary artery disease (CAD) is the biggest killer in the world for the past 15 years, accounting to about 9 million deaths in 2015, according to the World Health Organization (WHO).

Due to inadequate blood supply to the heart, people with CAD often suffer from angina, often described as squeezing, pressure or pain in the chest, spreading to the shoulders, arms, and neck.

In the past, surgery or angioplasty is usually the only option available when a patient fails to respond to medication. Today, the Enhanced External Counterpulsation (EECP) provides an alternative to patients who prefer a non-invasive form of treatment for angina and heart disease.

During the EECP procedure, blood pressure cuffs are wrapped around the patients' legs. These cuffs squeeze and release in sync with the patient's heartbeat, promoting blood flow throughout the body, particularly to the heart. In the process, EECP develops new pathways around blocked arteries in the heart by expanding the network of tiny blood vessels, thereby increasing and normalising blood flow to the heart muscle. For this reason, it is often called the natural bypass.

Numerous clinical trials in the last two decades have shown EECP therapy to be safe and effective for patients with refractory angina with a clinical response rate averaging 70% to 80% sustained up to 5 years. It is shown to improve quality of life and exercise capacity as well as left ventricular function long-term.

*EECP has been approved as a treatment for angina and heart failure by the US Food and Drug Administration (FDA).

ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub – The One-Stop Rejuvenation Centre of Asia

ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub is the first to offer the revolutionary EECP treatment in Malaysia as a part of its integrative approach to heart health. We employ 4 steps – Assessment, Detoxification, Boosting and Rejuvenation – to help people achieve a healthy, quality life.

Methods available to boost heart health include cellular therapy, bio resonance (BR) scan and IV drips with nutrition advice. Cellular therapy supplies the heart with young and active cells to rejuvenate and regenerate weakened heart muscles; BR scan checks the organs and detects health risks; while IV drips normalise blood flow and protect the vascular wall.

Other body, mind and soul services available include: head-to-toe health screenings, innovative holistic therapies, spa and massage, postnatal rejuvenation, skin and breast treatments, etc. A medical advisory board consisting of international and local medical doctors as well as scientists forms a strong core of support for ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub. Rest assured that you are receiving some of the best treatments available in the region when you come to ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub.

We are offering Free ECP / EECP Trial for a limited time (T&C apply) at ZÉLL-V Wellness Hub

Central Market

Find some fascinating antiquities and gems by visiting the Central Market, commonly known as Pasar Seni. The Central Market in Kuala Lumpur is the perfect venue for showcasing genuine Malaysian culture and tradition. With its modest beginnings as a wet market in 1888, it has grown into a lovely location. More than 300 stores selling regional handicrafts, textiles, souvenirs, collectibles, and eateries are housed in the gorgeous art-deco building.

Carcosa Seri Negara

The Carcosa Seri Negara is a Malaysian heritage structure located in Kuala Lumpur Lake Gardens. During the colonial era, the British High Commissioner lived in Carcosa. It was constructed more than a century ago, and in the early 1980s, it was converted into a hotel. A few kilometres from Kuala Lumpur's centre, Carcosa is surrounded by lovely landscape gardens on all sides. Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II and Prince Philip have both stayed at Carcosa.

Old Railway Station (KTM)

One of KL's most well-known historical sites is the Old Train Station. Before KL Sentral opened in 2001, it served as KL's main railway hub. The Kuala Lumpur Train Station was built in the year 1886 and was later restored in the year 1910; with an enhanced iron roof built to endure snow! This old structure has a distinctive architecture that combines elements of Moorish, Western, and Eastern traditions.

MUSEUMS AND MEMORIALS

Royal Museum

The Royal Museum of Malaysia first opened its doors on February 1, 2013. The King and Queen of Malaysia had their official residence in the previous National Palace. The museum is situated in the former National Palace, which recently reopened to the public. Before, horse guards stood watch over the Royal Palace, which was off limits to the general public. Since the palace is now a Royal Museum, everyone is welcome to visit. A former palace guard will accompany you and give you a thorough tour. The King and Queen's former sleeping quarters will also be shown to you.

INTRODUCTION TO MALAYSIAN

The great ethnic, linguistic, and religious diversity of Malaysia is well known to us all. The bulk of people in each ethnic group have kept up their ancestral traditions. As a result, Malaysian culture accepts a wide range of beliefs, principles, and lifestyles.

In addition to the three primary ethnic groups of Malay, Chinese, and Indians, Kuala Lumpur also has a large number of indigenous local races (including many Borneans that are currently in Peninsular Malaysia). The distinctive blending of cultures from the immigrant communities that settled and intermarried locally gave rise to the culturally diverse country we have today.

A trip to Kuala Lumpur won't be complete without understanding and appreciating their rich legacy. We have included a section for you to read about the customs and traditions that they practise so that you can discover more about how distinctive Malaysian culture is.

You may rebuild respectful relationships with Malaysians by learning as much as you can about their native nation, race and religion before meeting them. Some of the cultural places in Kuala Lumpur that we have previously mentioned are accessible to you. In Malaysia, there are a tonne of cultural attractions, particularly in KL.

PLACES OF WORSHIP-MUSLIM

Masjid Al-Bukhari

The Al-Bukhari Foundation Mosque, also known as Masjid Yayasan Al-Bukhari, was named in honour of the Al-Bukhari Foundation's founder to honour their surname. The mosque was originally known as Surau Babul Jannah and was a dilapidated prayer hall that was 147 years old. From 2004 to 2006, the mosque was restored. The architectural style of the Masjid Al-Bukhari is influenced by Islamic architectural styles, especially those from Middle Eastern nationals. The mosque has a capacity of 1600 people at once.

Masjid Negara

KL is home to the 1963-built National Mosque of Malaysia. The mosque, which is still steadfastly standing on its grounds, is now seen as a key symbol of Malaysia, an Islamic country. Some 15,000 people may fit in the mosque, which is encircled by a 13-acre tract of lush greenery. The mosque's two primary features are its 73-meter-high minarets and its main concrete roof, which is designed like a 16-pointed star. The mosque's architecture transmits a number of meanings. For instance, the main roof was inspired by the image of an open umbrella, while the minarets were modelled after a folded umbrella.

Sri Maha Sakthi Mohambigai Amman Temple

A modest temple called Sri Maha Sakthi Mohambigai Amman Temple is located in MidValley City. It is the sole temple in Malaysia devoted to the Mohambigai goddess. The temple had a great atmosphere and was well maintained. There are also incredible statues and wall carvings to be discovered there, as the location is thought to be a more than 100-year-old temple.

PLACES OF WORSHIP-CHRISTIAN

Church of Our Lady of Fatima

The contemporary-looking church called Church of Our Lady of Fatima was built in 1963 to service the rising Catholic community in and around the Brickfields neighbourhood. It's one of four churches that are conveniently located near the city's centre. More than 1,500 parishioners who reside in and around the neighbourhoods of Brickfields, Bangsar, Taman Seputeh, and Old Klang Road are served by this church today. They come from several ethnic groups.

Catholic Church of The Holy Rosary

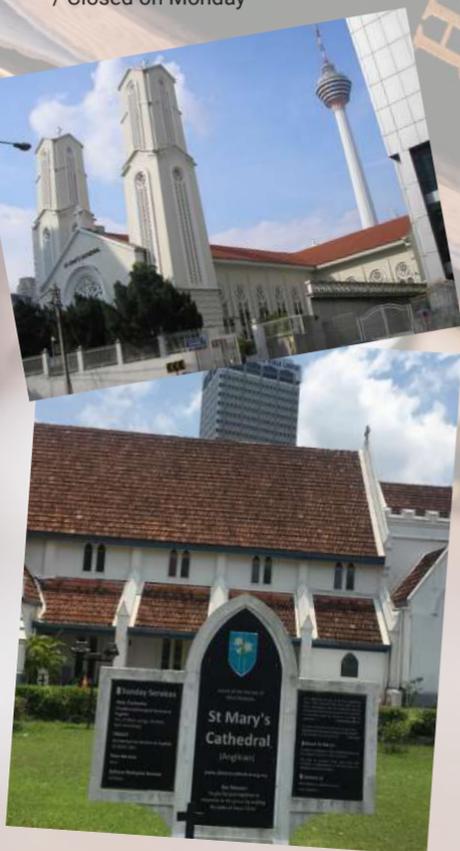

The Catholic Church of The Holy Rosary was founded in 1903. It is one of Kuala Lumpur's most revered locations despite being an old church. The church's exterior is magnificent and its building is in the Gothic style. It is intriguing to contrast the church's traditional structure with the contemporary skyscrapers all around it because it is situated in the centre of KL city.

St Mary's Cathedral Kuala Lumpur

St. Mary's Cathedral is one of the Klang Valley's oldest churches. The church was dedicated to Mary in 1887. The cornerstone was set in 1894, by the British Resident of Selangor. In 1970, the year the diocese of West Malaysia was established, the Bishop of West Malaysia relocated into St. Mary's Church. In Kuala Lumpur, the church is currently a well-liked tourist attraction.

INTRODUCTION TO KL FOR KIDS

Everyone should travel to Kuala Lumpur, especially young children. The city of Kuala Lumpur offers a wide range of activities for kids of all ages. In KL, there are several attractions available that are designed exclusively for kids to enjoy while learning about culture. It is best to keep the kids entertained in KL while you take in the city's sights yourself.

Hence, we have compiled a list of notable cultural sites, family-friendly restaurants, shopping centres, festivals, and special events. There are many sights and activities in Kuala Lumpur, so it's important to determine which ones are appropriate for families before visiting.

Kuala Lumpur is undoubtedly one of Asia's most family-friendly cities and is simple to navigate with kids. There is a vast array of kid-friendly activities in KL city. Because most parents prioritise these features for their children's safety, KL's air conditioned, paved walkways, and pedestrianised zones are perfect for toddlers or newborns in strollers.

In addition, choosing the top hotels in KL for families and those travelling with kids is advised. It is advisable to pick a hotel that will accommodate your family while you are there. This is due to the fact that many hotels and resorts offer rooms specifically dedicated for families because some rooms require a sufficient amount of space. Additionally, some hotels have areas designated specifically for kids' entertainment. Plan your family-friendly schedule right away and include a few of these locations.

INTRODUCTION TO SHOPPING IN KUALA LUMPUR

Today, the retail industry is very important to the tourism industry. The Secretariat Shopping Malaysia's (SSM) goal is to promote Malaysia as a premier shopping destination to both domestic and international travellers. Almost 50 of the roughly 190 retail malls in the cosmopolitan Klang Valley, which encompasses KL city, are found there. Everyone should go to the malls in the capital of Malaysia because there are so many possibilities there. In addition to having many locations to shop, Malaysian malls have developed into social centres, leisure areas, and entertainment venues for a range of activities.

Being the ideal venue to walk around in the sweltering heat, especially when the malls are air-conditioned, Malaysians prefer spending their free time at shopping centres. Shopping at malls is a great way to beat the harsh tropical heat. Some folks go to the mall even though they merely want to window shop. It has been shown that going to malls might improve our happiness and attitude. Since most goods in KL are reasonably priced, both local and international visitors will arrive at the city's airport with empty baggage. You may be able to bargain for a better price on some things at some locations. Remember to haggle and get the greatest deal you can!

Additionally, the districts of Bukit Bintang and KLCC also have upscale shopping malls including Pavilion and Suria KLCC. These malls carry a number of high-end international brands, including Jimmy Choo, Louis Vuitton, Gucci, Balenciaga, and many others. Other than shopping malls, KL is home to numerous local markets where you may get unique items for reasonable prices and spectacular discounts. There are plenty of markets in KL, including crowded flea markets as well as day and night markets. This section contains a list of KL's top shopping locations for your reference.

MUST BUY SOUVENIRS IN KUALA LUMPUR

Baju Kebaya

The Baju Kebaya is historically worn by Malaysian ladies. The Kebaya is a top with a front opening that is usually constructed from thin materials like brocade, cotton, gauze, lace, or voile. Moreover, embroidery can be used to decorate. The front is secured with buttons, pins, or brooches. The bottom portion of the outfit, usually referred to as the sarong, is a long length of batik or songket fabric that is wrapped and tucked around the waist.

Pewter Goods

Pewter products are of the highest quality because Malaysia is one of the world's largest producers of tin products. The primary components of the malleable metal alloy known as pewter are tin, antimony, copper, bismuth, and sporadically silver. Malaysians frequently employ pewter in their daily lives, especially for religious purposes. The largest manufacturer of pewter is Royal Selangor International Sdn Bhd. Pewterware is available in a wide range of products, such as dinnerware, tankards and tea sets, picture frames, desk accessories, and much more. Visit the Royal Selangor novelty store in Pavilion KL.

Hand-Woven Crafts

Several different rattan-woven products, including elegant hardwood baskets, fans, placemats, tiny woven wallets or purses, and many more, are produced in Malaysia. To express your gratitude for the people who passionately made these beautiful handcrafted woven items, don't forget to purchase them.

Batik

Batik is a significant aspect of Malay culture. Batik is created by adding vivid wax-resist colouring to a plain piece of fabric. The floral motifs and designs used most frequently in batik are flowers and leaves. In order to give it a more modern aspect, extra motifs like spirals and geometrical designs are now included. This style of art has developed a particular identity in Malaysia over time.

Labu Sayong

Labu Sayong is the name of a traditional ceramic craft. It can take on many different shapes, like the gourd-shaped porcelain water jugs known as jars. It's also one of the most popular and well-known presents among visitors. They help to keep drinking water at a cool temperature. Labu Sayong is also recognised to provide health benefits. The Central Market in KL is where one may get these excellent things.

A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING!

HIDDEN IN THE SAME LOCATION IN THE HEART OF KUALA LUMPUR IS A SURPRISING NUMBER OF FIRSTS!

On the 5th floor of Sungei Wang Mall you can find a karting experience like no other. That's right, karting on the 5th floor of a mall and not only that, karting on the world's first drift karts. This is what Blastacars Malaysia has to offer!

The karts are a fleet of Blastacars® Drift Karts, a unique style of kart made and developed in New Zealand since 1987 with the focus on drifting!

Unlike regular Go Karts, you can experience the adrenaline pumping experience of sliding and drifting around corners. Instead of braking before turning a corner, you use your momentum on the straights to flick the steering wheel and use throttle control to make the rear of your kart slide out as you drift a corner. This heart racing experience is only heightened when other racers are centimetres in front and behind you doing the same thing! The track which was originally a car park is now a thrilling mix of sharp turns, fast straights and sweeping corners.

The karts are equipped with powerful 270cc and 390cc Honda plenty of torque but safety in mind that adheres to New Zealand's strict safety rules. They have speed settings to suit beginners to professionals and even the children can race too.

PLAYERS ENJOYING SOME CAT AND MOUSE DRIFTING ON THE TRACK

You won't find a more thrilling experience in a mall! Blastacars Malaysia offers a complete drift academy, from drift karts to drift cars. Opens 11am-8pm everyday.

So leave the shopaholic to their shopping and head to the 5th floor of Sungei Wang for something different. challenge your friends and family to a truly unique experience. Plus they are open till late daily so you can try drifting day or night, rain or shine!

INTRODUCTION TO GASTRONOMIC DELIGHTS IN KL

Several first-time tourists to Malaysia were able to comprehend why this nation is likewise renowned for its cuisine. This country offers a superb gastronomic experience. Anywhere throughout the nation, one may find a variety of unique restaurants and food vendors.

The Kuala Lumpur culinary sector has benefited greatly from the culturally diversified nation. As you can see, Malaysian food is very diverse and has been greatly impacted by traditional Malay, Chinese, and Indian cooking techniques. These influences include using a wok as the main cooking vessel and using a variety of spices in most of the meals. The wonderful flavour combinations employed in Malaysian cuisine, which combine textures, tastes, and colours with a wide range of ingredients, are another example.

The three main aspects of travel that offer a greatest possibility for discovery are the people, the scenery, and the cuisine. We would like to extend a warm welcome to travellers coming to Kuala Lumpur and genuinely hope that you would take the chance to enjoy a range of the local cuisines and return home with joy and delectable memories.

Because KL is home to so many different ethnic groups, the cuisine here has its own unique flavour. Real Malay restaurants are conveniently located adjacent to a range of Chinese and Indian establishments. You should definitely sample all the delicious regional specialties that are unique to Malaysia!

MUST EATS IN KL

SNACKS & DESSERTS

Ais Kacang

Ais kacang, also called ABC, is a popular Malaysian delicacy. It contains red beans, jelly, sweet syrup, and shaved ice. To give the ABC a more original touch, some people will additionally include fruits or sweet corn. Traditionally, an ice shaving machine, which was previously hand-cranked but is now more typically motorised, is used to churn out the shaved ice used in the dessert.

Tepung Pelita

Tepung Pelita is a pandan and santan custard two-layer kuih that is steamed in little banana leaf or pandan pots. Its centre is packed with sugar water, giving it a sweet creamy taste.

Mango Sticky Rice

One of the most popular desserts in the area is sticky rice, which is served with coconut milk and fruit like mangoes. A pleasing mix results from the texture of the fruit and sticky rice when additional coconut milk is added.

Roti John

In Malaysia, roti john is a distinctive snack that's popular among many citizens. It is a French loaf that is fried inside with butter and then topped with meat or poultry, onion slices, eggs, some veggies, a tonne of mayonnaise, and hot sauce or tomato sauce. The ideal snack to enjoy while exploring the night markets is this!

Roti Jala

A common Malay teatime snack, roti jala is typically served with curries. It is made of a single layer of flat, string-like batter produced with wheat flour (then folded or rolled up after cooking, as desired).

Satay

Satay consists of little slices of meat that are roasted on skewers and served with a spicy sauce that generally contains peanuts. Satay is well-known in Southeast Asian countries especially in Malaysia and Indonesia.

168 Claypot Chicken Rice

This 168 Claypot Chicken Rice is claimed to have been in operation for more than 40 years and is situated in Pudu. It is one of KL's most well-liked claypot chicken rice dishes. Since they still cook their rice over an antique charcoal stove, giving it more flavour, the claypot chicken rice is incredibly authentic. Although it is favourable to many, it might be fairly packed at times, so do expect a longer wait.

CHINESE CUISINE

Sek Yuen Restaurant

The Sek Yuen Restaurant is a Cantonese restaurant that has endured over the years. It has kept its vintage appearance, and the owner believes that modernization is not an option. Parallel to this, the well-known dishes have continued to be served, including their famed "Pei Pa" duck dish. It is prepared using a traditional wood-fired method, and it is wonderful. So don't be shocked by the wonderfully charred flavour on your first bite, as well as the thin-layered crispy duck skin and sumptuous moist meat.

INTRODUCTION TO KL NIGHTLIFE

KL's vibrant nightlife provides a wide range of activities. Malaysia is a Muslim nation even though it has a sizable alcohol sector and many places provide happy hours. KL city, known for being a hive of activity at night, has a distinctive appearance when twilight approaches. Due to the abundance of pubs, bars, clubs, and upscale rooftop bars in KL, there are many interesting venues to explore after dark.

Late-night travellers in KL are huge fans of rooftop bars. There are several late-night destinations in KL city, from luxury restaurants to cocktail lounges situated on towering buildings, that are located above the streets. These rooftop bars and clubs on top of skyscrapers are some of the best nightlife alternatives in the city because you can take in the breathtaking view of KL from above. The best locations to visit if you want to unwind with some good music are bars and pubs.

Several clubs can be found all across Kuala Lumpur as well. If you prefer partying, KL offers a wide range of clubs you can attend to make your stay more exciting and fun. In KL, you may visit a variety of dance clubs, discos, and bars with live music.

Apart from that, there are a number of lively clubs and pubs with a Western flair in the area around Changkat Bukit Bintang and TREC that attract young people and hard-partying crowds. In Bangsar's outer neighbourhoods and close to the city centre, there are numerous cocktail bars and late-night speakeasies, which fosters a convivial atmosphere. Around 10pm, loud, expertly-mixed DJ dance music fills the air in these places till daybreak. Therefore, here are some nightlife spots in KL that you must visit if you're seeking for a pleasant place to hang out and have fun.

INTRODUCTION TO REST & RELAX IN KL

It is believed that relaxing helps to relieve stress and revitalise the body and mind. Resting is distinct from relaxing because relaxing is how our minds regenerate and can help us feel less arousal from stress or anxiety. This demonstrates that while relaxation takes place while we are awake and includes us engaging in activities we enjoy, rest happens while we are asleep. It has been demonstrated that relaxation raises our mood, enhances our memory and decision-making abilities, and reduces our risk of developing anxiety, depression, and other heart-related conditions.

Although they go hand in hand, relaxation and rest are not exclusive. Hence, it is crucial that we obtain enough rest and relaxation in order to maintain the highest levels of mental and physical health. Prioritising rest and relaxation is encouraged, especially after a physically and emotionally taxing day.

A soothing spa day is known to be the greatest choice for you if you are worn out and in need of a pick-me-up, especially after a long day of travelling and shopping. So relax and rejuvenate at these spas and health centres in Kuala Lumpur.

TYPES OF TRADITIONAL SPA TREATMENTS

Acupressure Massage

Pain and muscle tension can be reduced by using the manual therapy technique known as acupressure massage. To imitate pain relief and muscle relaxation, critical areas on the body are gently pressed with the fingertips. Its method is applied to soft tissue and muscular trigger points. Benefits of this massage include relief from pain, headaches, insomnia, poor circulation, sinus issues, arthritis, shoulder stress, and neck stiffness.

Urutan Malaysia

Based on the several ethnic groups' healing practises in Malaysia, the specialised massage therapy known as "Urutan Malaysia" was developed. The Marma points, Malay urut, Indian head massage, native leg massage techniques, and Qigong therapy are all combined in a spectacular way. Urutan Malaysia aims to rejuvenate, refresh, and relax while also providing us with a holistic wellness experience.

Thai massage

Passive stretching, acupressure, and compressions are all included in Thai massage. These massages, which aid in extending range of motion, are beneficial for your muscles, joints, and posture. This massage briefly relieves your suffering if you have a back ache. The therapist would often use their hands, thumbs, elbows, forearms, and perhaps even their feet to massage your muscles during a traditional Thai massage.

Ayurvedic Massage

Ayurveda massage is frequently conducted with therapeutic herbal oils, which have a number of health benefits. During the massage, the oils will penetrate the skin, reach the tissues, and help expedite the healing process. By enhancing circulation, energising and strengthening the lymphatic system, and permitting the passage of life energy to the body, which enables it to be cleansed and revitalised, it not only aids in pain management but also serves as preventive medicine.

Chinese Traditional Massage

Traditional Chinese massage methods like acupunctuure and herbal remedies aim to improve general health by encouraging the movement of energy or Qi around the body. This is in contrast to deep tissue or sports massage, which concentrate on reducing knots and muscle tension by directing blood flow to specific areas. The masseuse uses their hands, fingers, and elbows to massage the body's acupuncture points. Chinese massage is now widely regarded as a supplementary or alternative form of treatment for a number of illnesses.

INTRODUCTION TO MEDICAL TOURISM

Medical tourists are those who travel abroad to receive medical care. This used to apply to patients who travelled from less developed countries to significant medical facilities in developed countries seeking treatment that wasn't provided there. Yet, in recent years, people have begun to travel just for the purpose of getting medical advice because the cost of the service is lower overseas than in their native nation. Patients may experience differences in their treatment plans, notably in the availability of particular pharmaceuticals in a particular country, which may be tied to the stability of the local healthcare system's finances.

Malaysia reportedly boasts more affordable healthcare than many other countries. One of the reasons Malaysia is well-known for its medical tourism is due to the high quality of the treatments and their extremely reasonable per-session costs. In fact, this country welcomes hundreds of thousands of tourists each year who come for medical attention.

The healthcare system in Malaysia is "two-tiered", with a public healthcare system that is funded by taxes coexisting with a privatised healthcare system. Malaysia's healthcare system is recognised as one of the best in the world because of the government's extensive network of public clinics and hospitals, which provides significantly subsidised healthcare for all citizens.

Malaysian physicians are also very skilled and capable, ensuring that their patients get the best care possible. Most doctors will gently attend to their patients' requirements while making sure they are comfortable during therapy. Also, Malaysians trust doctors more out of all professions. Thus, we have provided a list of healthcare systems in Malaysia for you to visit if you want to enhance your appearance or obtain medical advice.

INTRODUCTION TO ACCOMODATION

Travellers visiting Kuala Lumpur can stay in accommodations ranging from chalets to five-star hotels. There are various places to stay in KL, many of them are either close to picturesque surroundings or close to reflective structures. These days, many people provide homestays or airbnb accommodations in their homes for tourists. Due to many existing low cost hotels in Kuala Lumpur, everyone who visits the city may enjoy a nice stay without hurting your pocket. There are numerous lodging options available at each hotel or resorts in KL, and the majority of their packages include breakfast as well.

Additionally, Kuala Lumpur is home to a sizable number of hotels that cater to locals travelling for leisure or business. A community space with arcades, a sports court, and other amenities is available in a number of places. These are made specifically with those who simply want to unwind and have fun indoors. If you stayed for a longer period of time, some places would also charge you less. Since many hotels change their rates daily based on occupancy, check the hotels' websites for the most up-to-date information. These days, booking your stay in advance via particular applications or websites is encouraged to get a slightly lower price than the actual amount. You may book hotels using these websites, including Booking.com, Trivago, Traveloka, Agoda, and others. To avoid the queue and save time, use these websites to book your stay in KL straight away!

INTRODUCTION TO NATURE RETREATS NEARBY KL

The best way to disconnect from the world and re-establish a connection with nature is through a nature retreat. There are many options to locate the ideal place to rest and relax close to Kuala Lumpur, whether you're seeking for a quick weekend getaway or a longer holiday surrounded by the tranquillity of nature.

Going on a nature retreat has many benefits including taking in the fresh air, enjoying the natural beauty, peacefulness, and mental clarity. This also gives us the chance to take some time off from our hectic lives in KL City so that we can focus on ourselves and enjoy being surrounded by nature. Taking a break in this way is beneficial for both physical health and mental wellbeing - allowing us to recharge our batteries and return feeling energised!

For those looking for an active nature retreat near KL, there are plenty of opportunities to get out and explore the great outdoors that offers stunning views of rolling hillsides and lush greenery. There are various leisure activities that you can do with your friends and families.

On top of that, for those who seek even more tranquillity, there are numerous riverside retreats located close-by where one can enjoy peaceful moments listening to nature's symphony while taking in spectacular landscapes along the way. Unwind in nature and get away from the hustle and bustle of KL city with a nature retreat at these interesting places!

BEAUTIFUL CASCADES

NEARBY KL

Chilling Waterfalls

On the way to Fraser's Hill, there is a waterfall named Chilling Waterfalls that has been considered as one of the must-visit waterfalls. It is composed of three vertical waterfalls that are split in three and run strongly, especially after heavy rain. It is best to visit this waterfall soon after rainy weather if you want to take in all of its magnificence.

Address: 44000 Kuala Kubu Bharu, Selangor

A 40-Minute Drive Beyond KL

Beyond Kuala Lumpur, lies an unending array of must-visit destinations that are accessible within 40 minutes. There are a variety of hidden gems beyond Kuala Lumpur ranging from mountains, oceans, lush forests, tiny villages and many more that are just waiting to be explored! Throughout Malaysia, there are many diverse towns and cities, each with its own distinct customs and traditions. Also, each of them will undoubtedly highlight Malaysia's rich cultural diversity, including a variety of regional specialties.

In this issue, we will be providing a 40-minute travel route for you to plan and venture out of KL to explore what beyond KL has to offer. There are plenty of places that we are going to cover in this 40-Minute Drive Beyond KL section by venturing out to four directions which are to the north, south, east and west from KL. Make the most of your day trip and check out these spectacular spots that are only 40 minutes beyond KL. Immerse yourself in Malaysia's rich history and culture.

MAP OF ROUTES

VENTURE OUT OF KL TO THE NORTH - RAWANG -

Let's venture out to the north to begin the 40-minute drive beyond Kuala Lumpur. Our first stop on the journey will be Rawang. Rawang is known for its tranquillity as it is just a small town located within the district of Gombak. Rawang primarily served the tin mining business, hence it is the first town to receive electric street lights back then as the British erected the first electric generator there. Rawang is just an easy drive from Kuala Lumpur. The journey to the north of Kuala Lumpur will be filled with interesting sights to see along the way. Keep your eyes open so you won't miss out on the exciting sights. On top of that, we will also be sharing with you interesting places to visit along the way! Check out the interesting places that we have recommended for you to visit in Rawang and along the way as well!

SIGHTSEEING

Commonwealth Forest Park Falls

The Commonwealth Forest Park Falls is one of the popular camping locations in Klang Valley. Four different camping areas house a total of 21 spots. The park debuted in 1993 to commemorate the 14th Commonwealth Forest Conference, which was held in Kuala Lumpur. There are services like restrooms and small cafes provided for the use of the visitors. Also, while you're there, they allow you to try out activities like canoeing and ATV rides.

Bukit Cherakah Trailhead

Puncak Alam's Bukit Cherakah Trail should not be confused with the Bukit Cherakah at the Shah Alam Botanical Garden. When trekking, all you have to do is stick to the main track that is offered. You might need to use the ropes that were supplied to help you climb some of the steep paths throughout the route. When you get to the top, the view is really breathtaking. In reality, it takes about one hour and thirty minutes to get there. Mountain cyclists love to ride up the hill as well.
